COVID-19 Statement

As we navigate the coronavirus and its impact on our programming, please note that many of our services will include capacity limits and safety modifications. These limits and modifications can be found within each specific program page on our website at www.hprecreation.org. Details are subject to change at any time. It is our goal to make every possible and reasonable attempt to offer programs and services while maintaining public safety conditions.

A Message from the Director

Dear Hilton-Parma Community Members,

Happy New Year! As we enter 2022, we hope that you all experienced the Holidays and past few weeks with those you care about and in good health. Thank you for experiencing this past year with us and all that came with it, including a great year of activities and opening of our brand-new playground, Adventure Towers Playground!

As we move forward, we say farewell to our Town Supervisor of the past four years, Jack Barton. Supervisor Barton accomplished so much to make our community better and was extremely supportive of our Parks and Recreation Department. We thank him for his service and wish him the best on his retirement. With that, we welcome long-time Town Board Member, Jim Roose, as our new Supervisor. Jim has years of experience and has served as our most recent liaison to the Department. Please join us in welcoming Mr. Roose to his new position.

This past Fall was very exciting for our Parks and Recreation Department which received four Genesee Valley Recreation and Park Society awards. Honors were received by Director Thomas Venniro, Recreation Leader Kathleen Laskey, Recreation Assistant Joe Battaglia, and our new playground! The awards are listed below and detailed on the following page.

Lastly, we are excited to move into the New Year with some great new opportunities for our community, including the return of our Valentine's Day Family Sweetheart Ball coming to you on Thursday, February 10. Please remember that we are following state and county guidance requiring the use of well-fitting face coverings or masks at all times while indoors. We understand that many people have different views on this guidance and ask for your understanding and cooperation. In many cases, this is the difference between being able to run an activity or not.

We plan to have several new exciting announcements for the community this year. For now, explore the content within this guide to find your traditional favorites and other programs that might be new to you and your family members. We hope to see many of you soon!

Thomas Venniro, Director of Parks and Recreation

About Our 2021 Awardees

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE – THOMAS VENNIRO, DIRECTOR OF PARKS & RECREATION

To win this award, the highest honor awarded to active professionals in the field, a professional must make significant contributions over an extended period. Tom has tirelessly strived to do so through ways described below and most of all by providing patrons top notch service and customer experiences. Not one to sit behind a desk, he is supporting programs, events, staff members, community organizations, and engaging with stakeholders at any given moment, no matter the time of day. As a team leader, Tom empowers his employees to make decisions which helps foster a positive work atmosphere and relationships, and most importantly, amazing programs, events, and services for our community.

Tom's dedication to the parks and recreation field is displayed further by his desire to regularly give time to professional associations such as, Genesee Valley Parks and Recreation Society, New York State Parks and Recreation Society, and National Recreation and Parks Association. Tom has been recognized with honors and awards due to his efforts, including being named a recent Rochester Forty Under 40 and the National Young Professional Award early on in his career. Additionally, Tom pays it forward and is always passing on his knowledge by speaking to college students and presenting at conferences, webinars, or at other professional functions.

YOUNG PROFESSIONAL AWARD – KATHLEEN LASKEY, RECREATION LEADER

The recipient of this award exhibits attributes of an emerging leader, is engaged in professional or community organizations, and demonstrates outstanding service to their agency. Kathleen Laskey does exactly that for the Town of Parma and the Hilton-Parma Parks and Recreation Department since the fall of 2018.

Throughout her first two years in her current role, Kathleen has been eager to assist her office colleagues serving on various GVRPS and NYSRPS committees and after a successful election, she currently serves as a GVRPS Executive Board Member as Member at Large.

Much of her time is dedicated to the Department's Before and After School Program which she directly oversees and has recently converted into a NYS Licensed Child Care Program. She has fostered program growth, nurtured part-time staffing, established overwhelmingly positive relationships with program participants, and successfully transformed the program during these unprecedented times.

STEVEN R. FOWLER GOOD GUY AWARD JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, RECREATION ASSISTANT

This recognition, named in honor long-time Hilton-Parma Parks and Recreation Director Steve Fowler, is awarded to someone who is actively involved in the field and activities related to the field of parks and recreation. True to Steve's character, the recipient unselfishly contributes time, expertise, and effort to further the goals of the field.

Joe has been in the field since 2011, beginning on a part time basis for Gates Rec and currently serves the Town of Parma as Recreation Assistant. Some of the programs he has overseen have included Afterschool program, Kids night out, recess camps and various special events. In true good guy fashion, Joe began giving back to the profession by working with GVRPS in 2017, co-chairing conferences and serving as Member at Large and various committees. Committees

A little story about Joe, on his first day of work with the Town of Parma, we would typically plan to orient and on-board an employee. Joe was asked to assist with a playground build in the rain and did so with a smile throughout the entire week. Joe embodies the definition of this award.

EXCEPTIONAL PARK DESIGN – ADVENTURE TOWERS PLAYGROUND AND PARMA TOWN PARK

In 2020, the Town of Parma approved budgeted funds to replace a 26-year-old playground at Parma Town Park. The Town had $220,000 in dedicated Town Funds for a $325k project, so the Department was able to raise additional $105k through Friends Foundation public fundraising, corporate sponsorships, and more.

Adventure Towers Playground at Parma Town Park features three massive towers, larger than life winding enclosed slides, a huge climbing net (spider web), a challenge course area, vibrant blue and green colored elements, and an emphasis on inclusivity; highlighted by a blue pour in place rubber safety surfacing, accessibility ramps, and playground features designed to make it easier for individuals of varied abilities to access and enjoy.
